

FIRST ROSE TO FIRST MAYOR—Susan Meloney sells the first rose to help raise funds for the Sierra Madre float in the rose parade to the city's first mayor, C. W. Jones. Although the city has donated $1,000, more money is still needed. The rose sale will be this Saturday.

Rose Sale To Start Saturday

Every Sierra Madre resident will be given the opportunity to participate in producing the city's entry in the Tournament of Roses Parade, when roses will be offered for sale in strategic locations throughout the business section on Saturday.

The City Council has allocated $1,000 to finance the float, but additional funds are needed. Saturday's sale will be headed by Mrs. Claude Brown, who is recruiting students from 9th through 12th grades, for the sale on Saturday, and one additional date, Dec. 7.

STUDENTS will sell in pairs, with the winning team to receive tickets to the Coronation Ball in Pasadena.

There will be no voting in connection with the rose sale, Mrs. Brown said.

Teams will start selling at 10 a. m., with each working one hour. Donations of 25 cents or more are needed to show a profit, Mrs. Brown said.

This year, as in the past, the float will be constructed at the city yards, Sierra Madre is one of the remaining communities cooperating in designing, building and financing the float.

VOLUNTEERS are needed in every phase of the project. Col. Walter Thurber, general chairman, said.

Most immediate need is for men familiar with tools to start construction of the frame of the float. Recruiting workers is Robert Green, local manager for the Southern California Edison Co. Green requested volunteers to contact him during the day at ELgin 5-3308.

Old-timers and newcomers are invited to join in the community effort, and may contact Col. Thurber, 470 Manzanita St., or Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, vice chairman, 141 Colony Dr.

Art Instructor Dies Suddenly

Norman Hart, art instructor of the class being sponsored by Sierra Madre Woman's Club, died suddenly Nov. 12.

The class was shocked to learn of his death since he seemed to be in good health at the Nov. 7 meeting.

Mr. Hart's landscapes are on exhibit during this month in the clubhouse.

Parents Will Get Released Time Survey

A questionnaire on released time classes for religious education will be sent home with Sierra Madre school children the first of next week, School Superintendent Dr. Lowell Jackson said yesterday.

The questionnaire, which will be sent to the parents of fourth, fifth and sixth graders, gives some background and then asks whether the recipient approves and would participate in a released time program if one is authorized by the School Board and made available by the churches involved.

The Sierra Madre Ministerial Association, headed by Rev. Donald Ostrander of Trinity Presbyterian Church, has requested a program, to start either after Christmas or during the new fall term.

Meanwhile, the Ministerial Association sent another letter to the School Board correcting its written request for released time which was presented to the Board on Nov. 4.

The original letter said "it is quite likely that the Christian Science Church, the Catholic Church and possibly the Jewish synagogue will be among those churches that will participate . . ."

In his latest letter, Rev. Ostrander told the Board he had since learned from Rabbi Charles W. Steckel that the Jewish community has its own weekly religious classes, after school hours, and would not participate in a released time program.

Under the program children whose parents approved would be released from classes for one hour a week to attend religious instructions in one of the city churches. Pupils who did not participate would remain in school.

City Employees Approve Health Insurance Plan

The Sierra Madre City Employees Association approved a health insurance plan Monday night, the first one obtained here.

Under the plan with Massachusetts Mutual, the City of Sierra Madre will pay half of the cost for each individual. The other half plus the amount necessary to carry each dependent must be paid by the employee.

Miss Dolores Thill is president of the association.

Two Local Animals Poisoned

A dog and cat and possibly a third animal died of strychnine poisoning in Sierra Madre Monday.

A terrier puppy named Mac which belonged to R. M. Rodolf, 110 W. Bonita, died within a half hour of eating what was discovered as a biscuit filled with strychnine.

An autopsy was performed at McBride Small Animal Hospital in Pasadena shortly after Mac died. There it was determined that the poisoned roll had been responsible.

The Rodolfs, who have two small boys, spent all day Tuesday raking and searching their yard in an attempt to remove any other possible poisoned material that may have been placed there. They were fearful that one of their youngsters could have eaten a roll or other poisoned food.

Mr. Rodolf said his neighbor's kitten also died of strychnine and that a female cat which belongs to his neighbor had disappeared.

The poisonings were reported to Sierra Madre police, who contacted the Humane Society. It is not known who poisoned the animals or where the contaminated rolls were placed.

Mrs. Clatworthy, 22 Years Here, Dies in Columbus

Word was received this week of the death of Mrs. Freda Miller Clatworthy, a resident of Sierra Madre from 1930 until 1952.

Mrs. Clatworthy died Oct. 29 in Columbus, Ohio, where she resided with her son, Dr. Harry W. Clatworthy Jr. Funeral services were held in Columbus and in Ft. Morgan, Colo.

Born April 11, 1884, in Coon Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. Clatworthy was a member of Alpha Phi P.E.O., the Friday Club of Ft. Morgan and St. Catherine's Guild in Sierra Madre.

She is survived by a brother, Herbert A. Miller, North Hollywood; daughter, Mrs. Gerald Ferrari, Palo Alto; son, Harry, Columbus; and six grandchildren.

Special Church Service Nov. 28

The churches of Sierra Madre will unite in a Union Thanksgiving service in the City Park, Nov. 28 at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Ray Hansen, pastor of the new United Lutheran Church, will be the speaker. The combined choirs will be under the direction of Samuel Kirk of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church.

150 Boys Get Little League Data

About 150 boys turned out at City Park last Friday afternoon to receive Little League instructions, sales kits, and to be assigned areas for the sale of English holly which will be delivered to Sierra Madre in refrigerated trucks just a few days before Christmas.

There are bags of holly sprays selling for $1 or a "Do-It-Yourself" kit, from which door ornaments and wreaths can be made, which sells for $2.

Proceeds are to be used to help finance Little League baseball next season.

Dixie Tiller, president of the Sierra Madre Baseball Association, said a number of Sierra Madre's leading businessmen have already agreed to either sponsor a full team, or to assist, such as Osti's Nursery, Rasmussen Appliances, Roberts Market and Garland's Dry Goods.

It looks like a big season in 1958, judging by the number of boys and their enthusiasm.

There were 20 boys of "Babe Ruth" age, 35 new Little Leaguers, and approximately 100 boys who played last season, at the meeting last Friday. Possibly because of the prizes being offered to the leading salesman (the boys sell in teams of two each) sales competition is keen. The team with the most orders will be given a $15 merchandise certificate, second $10, and third $5.

The Little League charter application was officially approved by a league representative when Bert Menne, Bill Coulson and John Engert met with him last week. This means Sierra Madre can field six Little League teams.

All parents should watch for the announcement of a general meeting.

Avedesian Bid Rejected as High

A five-year rubbish contract was awarded to City Refuse Service of Arcadia Monday night by a unanimous vote of the City Council.

Councilmen expressed regret that they were unable to award the contract to John Avedesian, who has provided service here for the past nine years.

Mr. Avedesian's bid amounted to $1.65 a month for residential collections, compared with $1.40 for City Refuse Service. Although this is only 25 cents a month more for each of the 2,625 homes where collections are made, it amounts to $39,375 more over five years.

CITY RESIDENTS now pay $1.25 a month for Mr. Avedesian's service. His contract with the city expires Dec. 1.

City Refuse, with offices at 215 E. Huntington Dr., Arcadia, is headed by Paul W. Thorsen. The company has 30 large trucks, several pickup trucks and other equipment, and collects rubbish in Arcadia and Glendora. Mr. Thorsen also has interests in other concerns.

Mr. Avedesian's total bid, which included residential, commercial and city collections, was only slightly higher per month than City Refuse.

The latter two bids, however, were only estimates and are not exclusive contracts. In other words, independent collectors can solicit business for commercial and city hauling, but City Refuse has the exclusive contract for residential pickups.

IN ADDITION, councilmen felt that the great bulk of pickups here is in the residential area and that they were obligated to award the contract to the low bidder.

Councilman David Wood, who made the motion to grant the contract to City Refuse, said:

"I don't see how we can escape our duty. We can't do anything else but accept the lowest and best bid we can. On that basis we should award it to City Refuse."

Wood's motion was seconded by Councilman William Lisle. Mayor Charles H. James at first declined to vote, but later voted "yes" on City Refuse, along with other councilmen, all of whom were present.

'Janus' Is Well Acted, Humorous

By Edward L. Voorhees

"Janus," Carolyn Green's whimsical comedy of immoral manners, that ran nearly a year in New York, highly amused its first night audience at the Pasadena Playhouse on Nov. 14.

The action covers 36 hours of a hot July in New York City, in the second floor apartment of an old brownstone house "off Washington Square."

Jessica is the wife of Gil, a busy and sometimes philandering ex-Navy officer and shipping magnate. For eight consecutive years, leaving her home in Seattle, Jessica has spent two months of the summer in this New York hideout, in the secret occupation of writing best sellers, marketed by her agent, capable and highly sophisticated Miss Addy.

Jessica also has a collaborator, whom Miss Addy believes is Jessica's husband, Denny, actually a young married French teacher on vacation from a New England prep school.

DENNY LIVES in the apartment above and comes down in the dumb-waiter, with his suitcase of factual notes and typewriter, whenever Jessica gives three taps on the ceiling with the broom handle. Then, when Denny provides the facts for the historical novel on Emperor Charles V, Jessica provides the rhetoric, fire, and finesse.

And, we soon discover, both provide the kisses. Janus, by the way, was the old two-faced Roman god of gates and doors.

All is going smoothly in this urban Eden until, between one up-and-down trip of Denny in his dumb-waiter, Jessica's husband, Bill, returns to New York by government order from an interrupted voyage to South America, calls unannounced at the apartment, and discovers the situation.

From then on, the fur, so to speak, flies; and though the muscular Gil is restrained from actual provocation by the calm reasoning and some well-placed compliments on his "broad-mindedness" by both Jessica and Denny, it all breaks down when Gil sees that Denny is wearing one of the red socks Jessica had said she was knitting for himself.

GIL GOES completely primitive in emotion, but manages to control his physical reflexes. The situation is further complicated by a visit from a Federal tax agent, which brings unmitigated gloom and suspense until the resourceful Jessica who, as Gil says, "thinks the way other people dream," does a neat bit of detecting on the Federal agent, with amazing results.

In the cast of five, Hugh Marlowe and K. T. Stevens play Gil and Jessica, with convincing portrayal of the jealous male, and feminine reasoning, respectively; Denny is played with tenderness and intelligence by Don Keifer; Peg Lacentra does a smooth characterization of the literary agent; and Mr. Harper, the tax investigator, is played with fastidious penetration and restraint by Murray Julian.

Arrest Two On Drunk Drive Charge

Sierra Madre police arrested two local men on drunk driving charges recently.

Kenneth A. William, 47, of 50 Oakdale Dr., was arrested at 2:27 a. m. last Saturday and charged with driving while drunk. It was also discovered that his driver's license had been suspended for a previous traffic violation.

Arrested Tuesday at about 9 p. m. in his home was Sammie Dwight Massie, 37, of 462 Crestvale. Massie was charged with leaving the scene of an accident and with drunk driving.

A pickup truck, which Massie later admitted he had been driving, jumped the curb at Fairview and Grove and hit a pile of rocks. Massie said he left the truck and walked home.

He told police the truck went out of control and the brakes failed to work.

Tennis Club Sets Doubles Tourney Sunday, Dec. 1

The winning couple will receive tennis trophy statuettes; the runners-up will be given trophy cups. It is expected that many women and girls will be among the participants. Refreshments will be served without charge to all players in the tournament.

The club will also sponsor a doubles tournament for members only, early in 1958, and set up a "ladder" for men's singles. It was announced that before Christmas the club will hold an evening party for its members, who at present number 34.

White and Gold Yule Trees Set This Year

Christmas trees, the Nativity scene, holiday music and many other harbingers of the Yuletide season are being planned by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce once again this year.

On Dec. 1, white and gold Christmas trees, 8 feet high, will be placed in rows in the downtown section. They will be anchored in red and green barrels.

All stores in Sierra Madre will be open until 9 p. m., starting Dec. 9, permitting residents to shop and view the Christmas decorations at the same time.

The pepper tree in Kersting Court will glow with multi-colored lights, reflecting the Nativity scene below.

HOLIDAY MUSIC will be furnished by a fixture slowly leaving the American scene—a Little German Band.

Four merchandise prizes worth $25 each will be awarded the homes judged the best decorated. The city will be divided into four zones for the contest.

Zone 1 is south of Highland and west of Baldwin to Michillinda; Zone 2, from Grand View south to Orange Grove and east of Baldwin; Zone 3, the canyon area north of Grand View, and Zone 4, north of Highland and west of Baldwin to Michillinda.

Chairman of the judging committee will be Gordon Baker Lloyd, expert in decorating, whose column appears on this page. Mrs. Peggy Lusman is in charge for the Chamber of Commerce.

THE MERCHANTS themselves will award a trophy to the store with decorations which best capture the spirit of the Christmas season.

Tom Schwartz is general chairman of the Chamber committee in charge of arrangements. Working with him are Randall Perry, Dave Roess, Harold Roberts, Ralph Hurwit, Mrs. Harold Roberts, Carl Engel, who will supply the music, and Mrs. Lusman.

Holiday Issue of News Tuesday

Window Candles Typify Spirit of Yule Season

By Gordon Baker Lloyd
(Gordon Baker Lloyd, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce sponsored "Beautiful Home for Christmas," is an expert in landscaping and decorating. He has two television shows a week, one on Channel 7 each Sunday at 1:15 p. m., and the other on Channel 3, Friday at 4:30 p. m. His column on Christmas decorations will appear each week until the holiday.—Ed.)

I love the weeks before Christmas. They pass so quickly—and they are a lot of fun at our house, almost as much fun as Christmas itself. Why? The reason is very simple. The 21 days before Christmas on our block we share with all the passers-by and hour. This is done up to Christmas eve. Then on Christmas eve seven candles are lit or any number you and the neighbors choose. In the East in several towns this is one of the most powerful demonstrations of the Christmas spirit that can be seen.

Decorations outside the house can take place from shrubbery to eaves, from many strings of lights to gorgeous motifs of the spirit of the season. Here is a simple one to do. Instead of putting up many strings of lights why not try flood-lighting the shrubbery in various Christmas colors?

THESE LIGHTS can be bought from your hardware or electric shop or you can use gallon cans with lights inside them. The flood lights can be used by themselves with a good water proof cord—don't use common household wiring. Because these spot or flood lights

Mt. Alverno Guild's Annual Christmas Bazaar in Monrovia

Are you doing your Christmas shopping? If so, visit Mt. Alverno Guild's Christmas Bazaar next Sunday at the Elks Club, 215 W. Foothill Blvd., Monrovia.

Mrs. Hubert Graf, ways and means chairman, states months of work on the part of guild members and friends of the Sisters of St. Francis at Mt. Alverno has gone into the making of Christmas delicacies and decorations of all kinds to be offered for sale at the bazaar.

Mrs. James Burke, bazaar chairman, promises that beginning at 1 p.m. and continuing into the evening, patrons of the bazaar will find something of interest to the entire family — decorated booths displaying dressed dolls, aprons, unusual table, door and house decorations, toys and potted plants.

THERE WILL be booths to keep the young folks intrigued while mothers and dads browse among the items designed to make their Christmas shopping interesting and easy. Toddlers will have fun with the clown and his balloons, and Santa Claus will find something in his pack for every child.

Home-made cake, tacos and the perennially favorite hot dog will be served at the snack bar which will be open all day. Mrs. Milton Morningstar is chairman of the snack bar and will be assisted by Mesdames H. F. Mitchell, W. P. Fleming and Frank Parks.

ORGANIZED LESS than one year ago, Mt. Alverno Guild now numbers almost 200, according to Mrs. E. D. Pulone, president. The aim of the Guild is to contribute to the building fund needed to expand the crowded Novitiate of the Sisters of Francis of Penance and Christian Charity at 675 W. Highland Ave., Sierra Madre.

These Franciscan Sisters staff the parochial schools of Annunciation and Holy Angels in Arcadia, St. Rita in Sierra Madre, Sacred Heart in Altadena and St. Joseph in Los Angeles, as well as St. Francis Hospital in Lynwood.

Window

throw a glow to each side, a reflector or a gallon can holds the light in the direction you want it to go.

In colors of green, red and white, you can make a front yard take on glamour you never thought could happen. Don't worry too much if the yard is not beautifully planted because these lights don't show up detail but give an over-all effect. In fact, all during the year my front yard carries a series of little 25-watt globes that light up the shrubbery and gives it that unusual touch.

For reflectors you will find photo reflectors are fine, also enameled reflectors and many others can be used. I caution you on cheap wiring and connections. Get the water-proof kind so there will be no danger of any type of shock or short. Place reflectors at the edge of the shrubbery, not out on the lawn, for doing it this way during the day they will not be so easily seen.

Next week—a huge Christmas tree decoration 10 feet high, you can make. See you then, and also on Channel 7 each Sunday at 1:15 from our own garden, and Channel 3 each Friday at 3:30.

INSTALL OFFICERS

Members of the Social Club of the Eastern Star will install new officers at a dinner meeting Monday night, Nov. 25, in the Masonic Temple. The dinner starts at 6:30 p.m.

SIERRA MADRE NEWS—5
Thursday, Nov. 21, 1957
Here's How To Cook Holiday Bird

Helen Goodrich, Home Economics expert at the University of California at Berkeley, gives these timely tips on choosing and cooking turkey:

A high quality turkey has ... moist, pliable, waxy skin; short body; broad breast; thick thighs, a well distributed layer of fat under the skin.

Use low heat (325 deg.). Plan roasting time so that the turkey will be done 20 or 30 minutes before serving. This "rest period" makes the meat juicy and the carving easy ... and gives time to make the gravy.

Roast on a rack in a shallow pan; do not use water; do not cover. Put a "tent" of metal foil or a piece of thin cloth moistened with fat over the turkey. Baste with pan drippings or melted fat. The bird is done when the leg joints move easily. (Protect your hand with a paper towel.)

A 6-12 lb. bird needs 3½ hours; 12-16 lbs., 5 to 6 hours; 16-20 lbs., 6 to 7½ hours; 20-24 lbs., 7½ to 9 hours.

United Lutheran Church Plans Social Night Tuesday

Lutheran Night, a time of fellowship, movies and refreshment, will take place at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 26, at the new United Lutheran Church in the upper room of the Woman's Clubhouse.

The evening will begin with an informal talk on home missions by Rev. Dr. H. Paul Romeis, missions superintendent of the Pacific Southwest Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America. Dr. Romeis, who resides in Pasadena, formerly was pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Pasadena. This will be his first visit to the mission, which serves Sierra Madre, Arcadia and Hastings Ranch.

"Martin Luther" sound movie will be screened. This 90-minute film is one of the most successful box office religious productions and recently was in the news when there were attempts made to suppress the picture from being shown on television. There also will be a cartoon for the youngsters.

A fellowship hour with refreshments will follow the movies. Mrs. Paul Felt of Arcadia and Mrs. Ray E. Hansen of Hastings Ranch will serve.

The mission congregation worships at 10 a.m. each Sunday in the upper room. Next Sunday's sermon is "Oversleeping," based on the story of the 10 virgins, Matthew 25:1-13. The pastor also is beginning a Bible class at 9 a.m. Sunday for adults during the Sunday School hour.

LESSON-SERMON

The nature of soul and body and their relationship is taken up in the Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in the Christian Science churches on Sunday.

PEOPLE'S FACES are interesting. Do you have the feeling as you look at some people that they have peace in their heart, and this is written in their eyes? Others have fear or worry written on their face.

Fear and worry plague us humans and weaken us, even ruin our health. Despite our boasted security, seldom have so many felt so insecure. The cause? Maladjustment. We are "out of adjustment" with God, our Creator. READJUSTMENT is simple. Christ put it plainly when he said, "Let not your heart be troubled—believe." Faith is the hand which takes hold of divine security "through which God strengthens our heart." Whatever your fear or problem "cast thy burden upon the Lord and He will sustain thee." Read Psalm 31:1-24.

TODAY'S THOUGHT—Three things we crave most in life—happiness, freedom and peace of mind—are always attained by giving them to someone else. These three virtues add and multiply as we subtract them from ourselves and divide them with others. Yours Faithfully,

REV. RAY E. HANSEN

Church News

Bethany Forms New Club Group

Pioneer Girls, a national organization, is being formed at the Bethany Church. The first meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 26, in Fellowship Hall, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. All girls 8 to 12 are invited.

Harvest Is Theme At Congregational Church Sunday

Thanksgiving Sunday this week will be observed at the Congregational Church through harvest decorations on the altar, through dedication of pledges for the coming year, and through a Thanksgiving anthem by the choir.

Miss Cathy Franc will sing at both the 9:30 and the 11 o'clock service.

The young people of the Pilgrim Fellowship will go out Sunday evening on a scavenger hunt for good used clothing and canned food, to be distributed through the American Friends Service Committee.

Methodist Pastor on TV Sunday

Dr. Chilton C. McPheeters, minister, and the Chancel Choir of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church, will participate in "The Light of Faith" telecast on Sunday, Nov. 24, at 9:30 a.m. on CBS, Channel 2.

Dr. McPheeters will preach on "The Spirit of Thanksgiving," and the choir, directed by Samuel I. Kirk, with Mrs. Catherine Kirk at the organ, will sing two anthems: "Thanks Be To God" (Stanley Dickson) and "Let All Things Now Living," a traditional Welsh melody by John Cowley and Katherine K. Davis.

The 33-minute telecast will be projected on a large screen in the Sanctuary for those attending the 9:30 service, and the last portion of the hour will feature a tape recording of the sermon Bishop Gerald Kennedy preached a year ago at the dedication of the new church.

The rest of her family soon followed her to America.

She met and married Dr. Miner during the war. He was stationed with the Veterinarian Corps in the Army.

and as a result, Mrs. Miner got a liberal geographical education of this country before she was even naturalized.

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
SYcamore 7-9634

We're coming to the time of year that I just love; the harvest time, the turkey time, the mince meat, plum pudding and fruit cake time. I don't know why, but fruit cakes are kind of symbolic to me. I associate them with lots of tender loving care. You don't just run down to the store and buy a single fruit cake mix (or maybe they do have them now), you buy a pound of this and a pound of that until you have enough ingredients to "create" 10 or 12 pounds of cake. Then you lace it for several weeks until it is just right and ripe.

You just can't make a fruit cake without putting your heart into it and all of the time you are reaping the reward of the spicy aromas and your taste buds tingle with anticipation of the finished product. Oh, I think it is a very soul-satisfying project!

And speaking of turkeys, I have been scouting around to see what some of the local citizens are doing next Thursday.

THE J. A. GUTIERREZ family of 3515 Fairpoint will gather with their 10 children and the Fed Ascencio family to celebrate this Thanksgiving. Gabriel will return from Santa Clara to join them.

THE WARD CLARKS of 3033 Clarmey Lane will share their table with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Poorman, Mrs. Helen Schekel and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cross.

MR. AND MRS. Henry Hitt Crane of 1580 Old House Road are going to have a family dinner in their new home. They are having Rev. and Mrs. Frank Crane with their two children, Cathy and Johnny; Dr. and Mrs. John Phillips of Claremont, Mr. Jack Jones and Miss Josephine Spencer.

MR. AND MRS. R. B. English of 3033 Doyle Road are having a quiet Thanksgiving with their two children, David and Larry. Mrs. English just returned last week from a week's stay in San Francisco with some old college friends. She drove up with her two sons.

THE ELDON OSBURN home at 3290 Edgely Lane will be splitting at the seams over the Thanksgiving holidays. Kitty is having a dance on the night before Thanksgiving with a hundred or more guests invited from PHS and then on Thursday there will be a family party for about 15 people.

MR. AND MRS. Jack Rippee returned last week from a lovely vacation with their daughter and son-in-law, Corp. and Mrs. Wesley H. James. They stayed for a few days at Seaside, where Corp. James is stationed, and then went on up to Reno with them for a few more days.

MR. AND MRS. E. Marshall Harris of 1540 Sierra Madre Villa had six guests in for a novel dinner last Saturday night. They served a Japanese dinner complete to eating off mats on the floor.

I FINALLY got to talk to Mrs. Jack Paschall Jr. of 1324 Sierra Madre Villa. She is getting mighty hard to locate. Between all of her activities on the PTA, plus the excitement of their new 54-foot auxiliary yawl, the "Turmaline," she manages to keep on the go most of the time. There were quite a few hillites at their fabulous launching party—Mr. and Mrs. C. Tom Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golds-worthy, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. James Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Madison Meredith and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Paschall. They plan, however, to be home for Thanksgiving and are giving a family party.

PREPARING FOR the Christmas Dance Dec. 12 of the Country Cousins of Casa Colina are, from left, Mrs. John B. Atkinson, Mrs. Elmer F. Morton and Mrs. Lewis J. Ross. The realistic looking deer is made of paper mache. Further details will be published at a later date.

ELgin 5-2015

Hi! Only one week until Thanksgiving and then the wonderful shopping and preparations for the Christmas Holidays.

We played our last football game on last Friday. We will soon be in the swing of the basketball season. We really should appreciate the good job our football teams did.

Marshall had a wild game a week ago last Friday when we washed the Wilson "B's" 32-0. Too bad we lost our "A" game, but we just can't win all the time.

During the half time our Pom girls performed a difficult routine which they did very well. Some of the best girls we've ever had.

We've been lucky to have our pep assemblies. The last one was the best yet.

BARBARA CURTIS and Billy Jean Gully went to the Turkey Tussle and spent the evening together.

BIRTHDAY congratulations to Janet Dickson, Mary Jane McArthur and Polly La Lone.

MARY JANE McArthur had a birthday party last Friday night. They all went to see the new Elvis Presley movie, "Jail House Rock." Those attending were Carol Amery, Karen Forsberg, Judy Davis, Marilyn McGregor, Nancy Evans and Barbara McWilliams.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Okay, Mister Rockefeller—maybe you can tell me where I can see a movie for a dime these days!"

CHRIS DINWIDDIE and Dick Sanner went to the Turkey Tussle together.

THE MARSHALL Open House was a big success. This year the lights didn't go out.

SPEAKING of lights, our family enjoyed a pleasant weekend at Palm Springs and we always enjoy seeing the beautiful palms all lighted up. We had quite a group of our own—My Aunt Joan Lewis, Cousin Bobby, Aunt Phyllis Hothian, Cousin Sonya, mother, Brother Paul and I. We had real fun.

LET'S HAVE more news! If you have any, please call me.

See you next week.

Junior League
Group Meetings

The Junior League of Pasadena held two group meetings earlier this week to discuss various activities, projects and goals of the League, and to provide an opportunity for its members to express individual opinions on all facets of League work.

Mrs. Waller Taylor II, Mrs. Harcourt Hervey Jr., Mrs. L. Robert Sorenson, Mrs. Davidge Morphy, Mrs. Richard Hambleton, Mrs. Donald A. McGilway and Mrs. Warner Marsden presided at the meetings.

Cress Elected
Camp Fire
District Head

Robert Cress was elected chairman of the Sierra-Hastings District committee of Camp Fire at the annual meeting of parents and other interested adults at Field Cafeteria. Mr. Cress succeeds William H. Kindrick.

Art Myers was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Virgil Nodyke, secretary.

Elected to the committee were Mrs. Richard Crook, Mrs. S. C. Deal, Robert E. Meyers, Mrs. Alton Pryor, Joseph Phillipson, Donald Schwin, Mrs. James Stivers, Mrs. Hugh Warden and Mrs. David Orswell. Mrs. R. W. Koontz was chairman of the nominating committee.

The committee meets once monthly, serving as planning and liaison group between local Blue Bird and Camp Fire groups and the Camp Fire organization. Sierra-Hastings District is one of several in the San Gabriel Valley Council.

Special guests at the meeting and program were Mrs. Dick Mays, vice president of the San Gabriel Valley Council, and Mrs. Evelyn B. Donker, executive director, James Stivers, resident of Hastings, is the Council camp chairman.

A program followed the business meeting, which included dancing by the CHIKO-DA Camp Fire Girls, seventh graders led by Mrs. Helmut Vorster and Mrs. Anthony Briglia; modeling of Camp Fire equipment by IDA-KADA-KONYA, sixth graders led by Mrs. Joseph Cummings and Mrs. Douglas Morissette, and movies of Camp Chiquita and Camp Wasewagen, during Camp songs by TAMI-KA-DA and TANDA, sixth grade groups led, respectively, by Mrs. Peter Lubisch and Mrs. Draper Jennings, and by Mrs. Donald Smith.

Mrs. Robert Cress and Mrs. Lauren Maltby were social chairmen for the event, with refreshments being provided by the 22 Blue Bird and Camp Fire groups in the Sierra-Hastings District. The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of gold and brown chrysanthemums in a pewter bowl.

Forty-eight Camp Fire girls and their leaders enjoyed an "overnight" Friday night at the Council's in-town camp, Chiquita, located at the north end of Fair Oaks Ave.

Girls cooked out, participated in a program in the lodge, sang songs around the "fire circle" down the hill from the lodge, as well as taking nature and explorer hikes.

Construction to Begin
On New Pasadena High

Alleged politicking by teachers in the last school board election is still under investigation, the new school board has yet to agree on a new superintendent, but at last the date has been set for ground-breaking for the new Pasadena High School—Jan. 8.

The new high school is due to open in 1959 at the long and bitterly discussed Victory Park site. Bids are to be opened Dec. 10, according to school officials, and the contractor to be on the site Jan. 6. He is to have 120 days to complete preliminary work, rough grading, installations of curbs, gutters and drains.

According to a progress report, state approval already has been given plans for the shower and locker building, music and ROTC building and a library. The state is now studying the plans for the administration, and classroom and two industrial arts buildings, and is to receive for study the plans for four more classroom buildings, drama building, canteen and bookstore.

About $4,000,000 is to be spent on the school in preparation for its use in Sept. 1959, but this does not allow money for an auditorium, cafeteria, nor boys' or girls' gyms and other outdoor facilities, except one playing field.

To provide the additional some $4,000,000 needed to complete the plant, a school bond election is probable next year.

The California Teachers' Association, which is scheduled to investigate the "teacher politicking" issue, has promised a thorough and objective investigation and report to the school board.

On the task of replacing Stuart McComb, resigned Pasadena school superintendent, the school board reports that interviews of applicants are continuing, with Steve Salisian, board chairman, expressing hope the job can be accomplished soon.

Names of applicants for the job are secret. The list includes men already in the Pasadena school system, and others from out of town approved by a screening committee of California educators.

Tri Delta Members Plan
'Sleigh Bell Luncheon'

Members of Delta Delta Delta and their guests will be greeted by Christmas lights and a decorative scheme of crystal, red and gold as they enter the Grand Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel at noon, Dec. 3, for the tenth annual "Sleigh Bell Luncheon" given by the Delta Delta Delta Medical Research Committee for the Los Angeles Children's Hospital.

Over $55,000 has been presented to the hospital by this Tri Delta committee during the past 10 years for research in hematology, to the benefit of a vast number of children from Pasadena. Proceeds from this year's luncheon will again go to further this worthy cause.

Traditional Christmas carols will be sung by the collegiate members of Tri Delta from USC, UCLA and Long Beach State College as the party gathers about tables glittering with favors and gifts complimenting each guest.

THE AFTERNOON will be highlighted by a show presented by Saks Fifth Avenue, featuring new fashions and unusual gifts for the entire family, and carrying out the luncheon theme of "Christmas for the Family," with Romayne Malloy as commentator. Four sons of Mrs. J. C. Blackstock, a local Tri Delta, will model in the fashion show.

The 50-member committee working for the success of the luncheon is headed by Mmes. James S. White, president; J. C. Blackstock, patronesses; Marjorie Hunt, vice president; J. G. Drommerhausen, fashion show; Charles Curb, door prizes; K. P. Enlows, favors; J. C. Tompkins, invitations. Other members of the committee are Mmes. Charles Klingerman, Norman Dowds and Harold D. Libby.

PASADENA area patronesses include Mmes. Glen Hickman, Harry W. Hurry, C. V. Perrine, Joseph Saylin, A. C. Mueller, Alvin K. Renfrow, Horace W. King, James J. Prentice, Stanley Barnes, Harry Loring Falk, Robert Gregg, John S. Huffman, Everett Sadler, Robert Sumpff and Paul Spencer.

Second Lecture
On Teen Age
Problems Tonight

Two more lectures remain in the series of "Dynamics of Teenagers' Personality Development," sponsored by Marshall Junior High School PTA and Pasadena City College Extended Day Program.

Dr. Arthur Howells will discuss "Developing Teenagers Value Systems" on Nov. 21 and Dr. David L. Cole will complete the series on Dec. 5 with a talk on "Helping the Teenager Develop Responsibilities and Self-Direction."

This series is being held in the library at John Marshall Junior High School, 990 N. Allen Ave.

Don Benito
Troop 323
Goes to Park

Eaton Canyon Park provided the setting for a recent Saturday outing for Don Benito sixth grade Girl Scout Troop 323.

Equipped with charcoal stoves, made as a requirement on their Backyard Camper badge, each girl made a charcoal fire and broiled a hamburger for her own lunch. The afternoon was spent playing games planned to aid the girls in developing camping skills, singing and a hike to see the Los Angeles County Conservation Project now under development in the park.

Troop members joining in the fun were Tinnie Barnes, Patricia Burke, Carol Cairncross, Patsy Carley, Bonnie Even, Robin Harrison, Malinda Hays, Jane Knight, Gai Lewis, Cathy McLane, Bette Lynn Moore and Ann Thacker.

Accompanying the scouts were Mrs. Rod Carley, leader; Mrs. James Thackeray, assistant leader, and Mrs. Douglas Ewen, troop committee chairman. Scouts of the troop unable to go on the cookout were Anne Harris, Pamela Farnworth, Nancy Sanders and Kay Graves.

Another outdoor adventure planned by the group this month will be a hike to Henninger Flats.

The troop will begin this week working on their Dabber badge in the arts and crafts field with Mrs. Gal Lewis as consultant. Also, the Sewing badge will be accomplished by weekly trips to the Singer Sewing Machine Co. in Pasadena. Coordinating the Sewing badge will be Mrs. Walter Burke, assistant leader.

Jardineras

Mrs. Mary Darrow, an expert on herbs and herb cookery, will be guest speaker at the November meeting of Las Jardineras at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Rim Road home of Mrs. Ogden Boden.

Mrs. Darrow will discuss the use of herbs, especially in Christmas-New Year fare. Also using the holiday theme, Harry L. Van der Wyck, of a Pasadena decorating firm, will bring samples for suggested outdoor and indoor Christmas decorations.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Boden will be Mrs. E. J. Masterson and Mrs. James White.

No December meeting is scheduled for the club, the next meeting to be Jan. 21.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Doherty, former Ranch residents now making their home in Santa Barbara, and their sons, Pat and Dennis, were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Harrison, 1345 Daveric, and their sons, Ricky and Chick.

SANTA LENDS A HAND to lovely Linda Cristal as she puts the last of 20,000 light bulbs in the trees as they are prepared for Santa Claus Lane in Hollywood. Power will be turned on at 7:30 Wednesday night, Nov. 27, by Art Linkletter to signal the beginning of a star-studded parade in which he is grand marshal. Linda is starring in forthcoming Universal-International release, "The Western Story."

Sports in Haste . . .

Pay College Athletes?
Good Gracious, Not That

By Charles Ayres

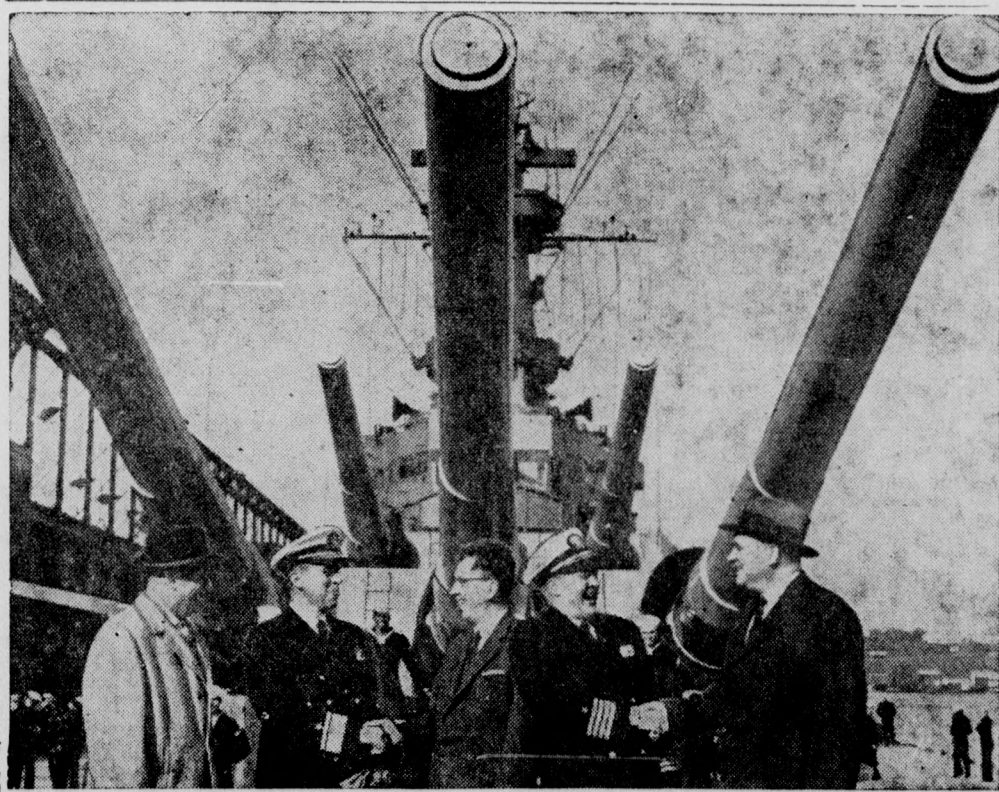

Nosing through the papers the other day (as I am wont to do) I took astute note of a serious drop in the stock market. My first (and intelligent) reaction was to seek the cause for this sudden turn of events on other than the financial plane.

The comics brought no relief since Mary Worth was not meddling any more than usual and Lil Abner still couldn't appreciate Daisy May. The front page provided no answer since Sputnik III hadn't yet been launched and Mutnik's irate friends have settled down to munching their friskies.

After asserting my parental rights, I retrieved the sports section from my eldest offspring, and sure enough, there was the answer. Their purpose is to advertise their school's good name through various well-publicized head knocking exercises every autumnal Sabbath eve. Heretofore their efforts had been rewarded with passing grades leading to educational certificates of achievement plus all they could pick up on the side from zealous and well-heeled alumni.

TO PROPOSE that these hirelings representing the finest in higher learning should forsake their amateur standing for all the world to see and feast of the golden egg was enough to upset the rah-rah ostrich all the way to Texas.

Fortunately, for our financial well-being, these indiscreet well-beings have rallied the economical opposition as never before and all signs point to a rapid rise in our pecuniary fortunes in that all evidence indicates a boom in weapon manufacturing to quell this momentary insanity.
